

Catalogare per preservare e conoscere. Un itinerario internazionale fra i libri antichi di Gerusalemme

Cataloging for preservation and knowledge. An international itinerary through the ancient books of Jerusalem

room St. Francis, Custody of Holy Land, New Gate – Jerusalem

9th November 2016, h. 14-17

Welcome: p. Francesco Patton o.f.m., Custos of the Holy Land (Jerusalem)
Dr. Milka Levy-Rubin, Humanities Curator, The National Library of Israel (Jerusalem)

Chair: Edoardo Barbieri Ph.D., director of CRELEB (European Research Center for Book Publishing and Library of the Catholic University, Milan)

Lecture: Luisa López-Vidriero Abelló, director of the Real Biblioteca (Madrid)
The knowledge of the book and the prospects of its valorization

Discussion and coffe break

Communications:

- Yoel Finkelman (The National Library of Israel, Jerusalem),
Jerusalem as an International Center of Hebrew Manuscript Research and Preservation
- George Hintlian (Christian Heritage Institute, Jerusalem),
Problems of cataloguing and preservation of Armenian documents
- Luca Rivali (Catholic University, Milan),
Cataloguing incunabula in Franciscan libraries in Jerusalem
- Khader Salameh (Khalidi Library, Jerusalem),
Catalogs of the arabic manuscripts in Jerusalem libraries

Conclusions: p. Lionel Goh o.f.m. (General Library of the Custody of Holy Land, Jerusalem)